It builds on IEEE 802.3 and OIF CEI-112G-LINEAR-PAM4 specifications. It enables Ethernet-like links with 1, 2, 4, or 8 lanes for data centers, using low power, high port density, low cost, and low latency ...

By shifting these functions from the module to the host, LPO achieves lower power consumption and latency while staying fully compatible with modern high-speed data center architectures.

From award-winning French fry “frites” and sauces to artisan-made Belgian waffles and family recipe savory stew and sausage. Dishes are made from the highest-quality ingredients available.

All LPO modules undergo independent validation in EU laboratories for power, signal integrity, and interoperability. A downloadable test summary will be available upon final verification.

Potron Technology Co., Ltd., provides solution and products of optical transceivers, optical engine and components, with full functions from research, development, manufacture to sales.

PAM-4 acceptable for long links, but NRZ modulation preferred for short, latency sensitive links At 50Gb/s channel speed, Wavelength Division Multiplexing is essential for module scaling
