

Performance Comparison of Bestselling Wavelength Division Multiplexing WDM Models and How to Choose Them

Overview

In this paper, a comparison of different advanced modulation schemes for 8×40Gbps wavelength division multiplexing (WDM) system has been carried out. The WDM system was evaluated over 300km of fiber with 100GHz channel spacing. Wavelength division multiplexing (WDM) refers to the technology of combining multiple optical carrier signals onto a single optical fiber by using different wavelengths of laser light. But navigating the alphabet soup of CWDM, DWDM, MWDM, LWDM, and SWDM can be daunting. Each offers distinct advantages tailored to specific network. Wavelength division multiplexers are fundamental to the functioning and performance of integrated photonic circuits, with applications ranging from optical interconnects to sensing and quantum technologies.
